University of California Davis School of Law: King Hall Outreach Program	The KHOP commitment involves two academic years and two consecutive summers: one four-week session each summer from mid July to mid August where you are "in residence" at UC Davis. During the two summer sessions, you will take classes in writing, logic, and LSAT prep, sit in on presentations; participate in Moot Court or Mock Trial; and meet with tutors and admission professionals who can help shape your academic and career decisions. During the academic year, you will participate in a mentorship program with a current law student, attend workshops on the application process, take practice LSAT exams under test conditions; and go on field trips.	Applications for KHOP 2011 will be available in mid-January 2011 and will be due in April.	http://www.law.ucdavis.edu/prospective/outreach/KHOP.html
University of California Davis School of Law: Pre-Law Boot Camp	The King Hall Pre-Law Boot Camp is designed to assist high potential undergraduate students with their undergraduate performance and preparation for admission to law school. The program consists of a series of Saturday workshops during spring semester 2009 that will prepare undergraduate students for the law school application process and expose them to diverse legal fields.	Applications for spring 2011 will be made available in mid-October 2010.	http://www.law.ucdavis.edu/prospective/outreach/pre-law-boot-camp.html
University of Iowa College of Law	The University of Iowa College of Law, with generous support from The University of Iowa, is pleased to offer the Philip G. Hubbard Law School Preparation Program. This program seeks to support diversity in the legal profession by inspiring students from groups historically under-represented in the law to become lawyers and by providing them with the skills and assistance that will strengthen their preparation for law school. American Economic Association (AEA) Summer Training Program	The program will emphasize economic theory, quantitative skills, and a research project. The program offers courses at two levels. This bi-level approach increases the diversity of participants, and makes the program accessible to students with relatively weak backgrounds who are nonetheless capable and talented. Program participants not ready for the Advanced Level will be able to participate in the program for two summers -- or they can enter a Master's program instead of moving directly to a PhD program.		http://econ.ucsb.edu/aeastp/index.html

APSA Ralph Bunche Summer Institute	Each summer, the Institute gives 20 students a look at the world of graduate study with a program of two transferable credit courses, one in quantitative analysis and one in race and American politics, to introduce the intellectual demands of graduate school and political science research methods. For a final project for both courses, students prepare original, empirical research papers, and top students are given the opportunity to present their research at APSA's Annual Meeting, with all expenses paid by the association.	http://www.apsanet.org/content_6602.cfm
Congressional Black Caucus Foundation Congressional Internship Program	Established in 1986, the CBCF Congressional Internship Program answered the call to help diversify our democracy by increasing the pool of talented public servants. The intensive nine-week program provides college undergraduates with a behind-the-scenes look into the democratic process. Through experiential learning in the office of a Congressional Black Caucus member, CBCF interns prepare to become decision makers in the policy making process. A series of educational activities, lectures, discussions and field trips help interns gain a broader understanding of the political process and African Americans' place in history. Interns will also receive a $3,000 stipend and housing at a local university.	please call (202) 263-2800 or send an email to internships@cbcfinc.org http://www.cbcfinc.org/internships/summer-internship-program.html
Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute Congressional Internship Program	The Congressional Internship Program provides college students with a paid Congressional work placement on Capitol Hill for a period of twelve weeks (Spring/Fall) or eight weeks (Summer). This unmatched experience allows students to learn first hand about our nation's legislative process. Promising Latino undergraduates from across the country are selected for this leadership training program. Students gain work experience, participate in a community service project, and receive educational and professional programming provided by CHCI. Public Policy and International Affairs Fellowship Program (PPIA)	The Public Policy and International Affairs Program (PPIA) is a national program that prepares young adults for an advanced degree and ultimately for careers and influential roles serving the public good. PPIA has an outreach focus on students from groups who are underrepresented in leadership positions in government, nonprofits, international organizations and other institutional settings. This focus stems from a core belief that our citizens are best served by public managers, policy makers and community leaders who represent diverse backgrounds and perspectives. Furthermore, international affairs are increasingly mixed with local concerns. Addressing such global issues make diversity a critical goal in professional public service. For over 20 years PPIA has been at the forefront of promoting diversity in public service and nurturing the full potential of students as active citizens, public servants and agents of change.	http://www.ppiaprogram.org/about/

Schomburg-Mellon Humanities Summer Institute	The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture and the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation have created the Schomburg-Mellon Humanities Summer Institute to encourage minority students and others with an interest in African-American and African Diasporan Studies to pursue graduate degrees in the humanities. The program, which is open to U.S. citizens and permanent residents, offers a six-week session for ten rising seniors (juniors in spring 2010, entering their senior year in fall 2010, graduating in 2011). Five will be selected from colleges and universities in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut and five from Historically Black Colleges and Universities across the nation. The Institute, with the help of renowned scholars, will develop and nurture the students' interest in the appropriate disciplines, and provide them with the requisite intellectual challenges and orientations needed to pursue humanities careers and to reach their full potential. T. Howard Summer Internship Program	The T. Howard Foundation's mission is to increase diversity in the multimedia and entertainment industry workforce. Students who become T. Howard interns are placed at major media companies that partner with the Foundation in support of our mission. A few of those partners include Comcast, DIRECTV, Discovery, ESPN, FOX, HBO, Intelsat, Lifetime, MTV, NBC Universal, Rainbow Media, Showtime, Time Warner Cable, and Turner Network Sales. Participating companies partner with the T. Howard Foundation to select and host interns.		http://www.t-howard.org/hitworks.htm
UCLA Summer Programs for Undergraduate Research (SPUR)	The UCLA Summer Programs for Undergraduate Research (SPUR) offer upper division undergraduate students with outstanding academic potential the opportunity to work closely with faculty mentors on research projects. The programs are designed for students who wish to learn more about the graduate school experience and possibly pursue an academic career in teaching and research. Opportunities are available in virtually all academic fields. Urban Institute Summer Academy	The Urban Institute Summer Academy for Public Policy Analysis and Research is a unique and challenging program of skills-building, career development, and mentoring for minority undergraduates interested in careers in public policy research. The year-long fellowship begins with an intensive eight-week summer program. Our summer program gives students between their junior and senior year of college the skills and exposure crucial to obtaining highly competitive entry positions in the field. After students successfully complete the summer program, we follow up with continued mentoring, research conference opportunities, job and graduate school counseling, and research paper publication during their final year of college.	March 2011	http://www.urban.org/uisa/

Cornell University LSAMP Undergraduate Summer Research Program	CU LSAMP-R is an all expense paid summer research opportunity that provides undergraduate participants with the opportunity to work with distinguished faculty and staff as well as network with others in their field of interest through weekly luncheons. Undergraduate students, interested in gaining a deeper understanding in an engineering-related field, have the opportunity to conduct and present research over a ten-week duration under the auspices of a Cornell Engineering faculty research mentor. Through this one-on-one partnership, participants will gain theoretical knowledge and practical training in academic research and scientific experimentation. CU LSAMP-R was developed to aid in the retention of traditionally underrepresented minority groups in the sciences, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM).		http://www.engineering.cornell.edu/diversity/office-diversity-programs/summer-programs/LSAMP.cfm
Harvard School of Public Health Summer Program in Quantitative Sciences	The Summer Program is a relatively intensive 4-week program, during which qualified participants receive an interesting and enjoyable introduction to biostatistics, epidemiology and public health research. This program is designed to expose undergraduates to the use of quantitative methods for biological, environmental and medical research. The program also provides useful advice about graduate	February 2011	http://biosun1.harvard.edu/diversity/summer/

RISE Research in Science and Engineering at Rutgers	RISE is jointly sponsored by two of the nation's leading public research institutions -- Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey and the University of Medicine &amp; Dentistry of New Jersey (UMDNJ). We have a vibrant campus, conveniently located only an hour from New York City and Philadelphia. We choose 20-25 outstanding college undergraduates to participate in cutting edge research in the sciences, math, and engineering under the guidance of prominent faculty mentors. An attractive financial support package includes a substantial stipend, free on-campus housing for eligible participants, and travel reimbursement. We especially encourage you to apply if you are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• from an economically/ educationally disadvantaged background</li> <li>• from groups traditionally underrepresented in the sciences</li> <li>• a first generation college student</li> <li>• a student who does not have opportunities for intensive research at your home university</li> <li>• someone who has followed a non-traditional path to college</li> </ul>	http://rise.rutgers.edu/
Rockefeller University - Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship Program	The Rockefeller University Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship (SURF) program provides a unique opportunity for undergraduates to conduct laboratory research. SURF students work with leading scientists in a broad range of areas including biochemistry; structural biology and chemistry; molecular, cell and developmental biology; immunology; virology and microbiology; neuroscience; physics; and mathematical biology.	February 2011 Office of Graduate Studies The Rockefeller University 1230 York Avenue, Box 177 New York, NY 10065 Phone: 212-327-8000 http://www.rockefeller.edu/surf/

University of Pittsburgh Summer Undergraduate Research Program for Underrepresented Students (SURPUS)	The Pittsburgh MSTP offers a 10-week summer research and professional development program for underrepresented students in the field of biomedical sciences who are interested in careers as physician scientists.
